

Herb Montgomery's experience in ministry began when he was a teenager teaching other young people how to share their faith through door-to-door witnessing. From 1998 to 2000, he was the director of S.O.U.L.S. (Southern Outreach Leadership School) in Orlando, Florida, under the direction of the Southern Union and the Florida Conference. In 2000, Herb accepted a call to be a seminar speaker for Light Bearers Ministry, a publishing and evangelistic ministry based in Oregon. Today, Herb is the director of Renewed Heart Ministries (RHM), a gospel-centered evangelistic ministry aimed at reaching our post-modern world with the message of God's love as well as reviving God's church through helping us see what our teachings are whispering to us about God and His character of love. Herb's clear, Christ-centered teaching moves hearts and has helped thousands encounter God and His love for them, as they never have before. Herb conducts seminars around the globe for RHM. Herb currently resides in West Virginia, where he finds his greatest joy with his wife, Crystal, and their children, Alexis, Emarya, and Christian. Herb Montgomery has just written a new book entitled "Finding the Father."
